

I am very concerned by the idea of increased monopolization of media sources. As a community college teacher in California, I encourage my students to study the media and to explore the sources of information they receive. Any further monopolization will lead to a near lock on sources and resources for a broad perspective of opinions. If we were to see this sort of monopolization in another country, would we consider they had a free press? Do we? Please vote against monopolization.

Than